TEACHING NOTES TOPIC 1

- Individual Listening activity: you will require to play cd 1 track 4, you can also retrieve the audio from mindseries.net (Class audio-unit 1-page 11 track).
- Collaborative Listening Activity: you will require to play cd 1 track 5, you can also retrieve the audio from mindseries.net (Class audio-unit 1-page 13 track).
- As a Unit Opener before you begin the lesson you can use the following strategy:
Working with “free” expressions:
Write _____-free on the board and elicit students to complete the adjective, e.g. sugarfree.
Make a contest organizing teams and eliciting how many words can they make with the suffix.
- Use the viewpoints video 1 on www.mindseries.net with its accompanying worksheet to make a wrap up at the end of the week and allow students to practice the structures reviewed on the unit.
- Make sure you also download the viewpoints teacher manual from the site as future reference for the activities.

TEACHING NOTES TOPIC 2

Individual writing activity:

- After you have presented the passive, you can ask the students to walk around the classroom to locate another student who has the same opinion about space exploration, and to sit down together.
- Ask them to brainstorm any arguments they can think of to support their position and write them using the passive.

TEACHING NOTES TOPIC 3

Learning notes (professor):

For the listening activities you will need to play the following tracks:

Team activity: CD 1 track 14

Individual activity: CD 1 Track 11,12,13

You can also access the listening tracks from www.mindseries.net following the route audios/unit 3/track #

Extra activity for the class if needed:

To sensitize the students about privacy issues and how to protect theirs from online predators there is a very useful website from the Canadian Government with free materials for teachers and a teaching about privacy toolkit.

You can access the site here:
